

MICHAEL F. BRODERICK

1025 Wilder Avenue, #4A • Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822 • mbroderick@ymcahonolulu.org • (808) 541-5471

Education

Stanford University, B.A. in American Studies and Psychology, 1979
UCLA School of Law, Juris Doctor, 1983

Professional Experience

PRESIDENT AND CEO, YMCA OF HONOLULU, November, 2010 to present.

Responsible for establishing and implementing the mission, vision, and goals of the YMCA, an organization with nine branches, 1300 employees and a $30 million budget. Also responsible for the Y's strategic direction and success, including overseeing its financial stability, community and philanthropic relations, staffing, development, and operations. Other important responsibilities include youth and family program development, the acquisition and retention of new members, and increasing participation in YMCA programs and government programs.

FAMILY COURT JUDGE, HAWAII STATE JUDICIARY, Honolulu, Hawai'i, June, 2003 to October, 2010. Trial Judge in Honolulu's unified Family Court, hearing over 10,000 cases of every type involving families and children. Presided over hundreds of settlement conferences. Lead Judge of the Special Division. Worked closely with government and social service agencies (including DHS, PACT, Catholic Charities, and Child and Family Services) to develop programs to more effectively serve and help the children and families of Hawai'i.

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR OF THE COURTS, HAWAII STATE JUDICIARY, Honolulu, Hawai'i, June, 1996 to September, 2001: June, 2002 to June, 2003. Responsible for the programmatic, administrative, and fiscal operations of the statewide court system. The Judiciary had 1,800 employees, a $110 million budget, and a multi-million dollar capital improvement project budget. Chief lobbyist for the Judiciary's budget and legislative package. Oversaw the Judiciary's capital development process, and the development and execution of the Judiciary's strategic plan and restructuring initiative. Direct reports included Program, Planning and Evaluation, Budget and Statistics, Fiscal and Support Services, Personnel, Public Affairs, Telecommunications and Information Services, Legislative Affairs, Internal Audit, and Legal.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, HAWAII JUSTICE FOUNDATION, Honolulu, Hawai'i, October, 2001 to June, 2002. Developed and executed a successful fundraising plan, and led an innovative planning initiative. Identified and evaluated grant recipients. Provided a broad range of grant support, program development, and problem solving assistance to Hawai'i's non-profits, and to the community-at-large.

DIRECTOR, HAWAII CENTER FOR ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION, Honolulu, Hawai'i, July, 1992 to June, 1996. Managed Hawai'i's State Office of Dispute Resolution. Mediated complex litigation and public policy disputes, developed dispute resolution programs, conducted dispute resolution training and outreach, and managed the Judiciary's contract with the statewide community mediation centers.

POLICY AND RESEARCH ANALYST, HAWAII STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION, Honolulu, Hawai'i, April, 1990 to June, 1992. Advised Hawai'i State Board of Education on policy, strategic planning, administrative, and budgetary matters. Worked extensively with the State Superintendent of Education, union leaders, state legislature and the business community to formulate statewide educational policies and plans including teen pregnancy, academic requirements for athletic participation, standards for geographic exceptions, principal and teacher grievance procedures, and school governance and restructuring.

ATTORNEY, CARLSMITH, WICHMAN, CASE, MUKAI AND ICHIKI, Honolulu, Hawai'i, February, 1987 to March, 1990. Practiced employment law and civil litigation representing a cross-section of some of Hawai'i's largest companies. Worked on transactional, administrative agency, state and federal court matters.

SPECIAL/EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT, LOS ANGELES MAYOR TOM BRADLEY, Los Angeles, California, August, 1985 to January, 1987. One of the Mayor's administrative and policy point persons in the areas of human services, health, seniors, education, law and justice. Mayor's co-liason with the Los Angeles Police Department and Police Commission. Oversaw the process for the archive site selection of the Robert F. Kennedy Assassination files.

ATTORNEY, SEYFARTH, SHAW, FAIRWEATHER AND GERALDSON, Los Angeles, California, September, 1983 to July, 1985. Practiced employment law for the largest employment law firm in the country. Clients included many Fortune 500 companies.

Community Activities

Member, Honolulu Police Commission (2020-present)
Board of Advisors, Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution (2003-present)
Board of Advisors, Foster Custody Community Partnership Hui (2011-present)
Board of Governors, Hawaii Community Foundation (2013-present) (Executive Committee)
Board of Advisors, Mental Health America of Hawaii (2013-present) (Chair)
Hawaii P-20 Partnership for Education Council (2015-present)
Board of Advisors, HMSA Foundation (2018-present)
Ho'omaluhia Advisory Council (2016-2018)
Graduate, 2017 FBI Citizens Academy Program
Hawaii Advisory Committee, Joyful Heart Foundation (2015-2018)
Member, Honolulu City Charter Commission (2015-2016)
Board of Directors, Honolulu Community Action Program (2011-2014)
Board of Advisors, AUW Community Impact Building (2011-2014)
Steering Committee, Domestic Violence Men's March (2011-2013)
Working Group, Honolulu Rail Scenarios & Impacts Project (2011-2013)
Board of Advisors, Catholic Charities Initiative on Trauma and Children (2010 - 2012)
Chair, Legislatively created Task Force, Criminal Justice System Impact on Pacific Islanders (2011-2012)
Board of Trustees, St. Andrew's Priory School (2003-2013) (Co-Chair, Headmaster Selection Committee) (Executive Committee)
Board of Directors, YMCA of Honolulu (2002-2010)
(Executive Committee and Officer 2007-2010)
Community Advisory Panel, Governor's Cabinet Positions (2010)
Board of Directors, Boys and Girls Club of Hawai'i (2000-2010)
(Executive Committee and Program Committee Co-Chair)

Board of Directors, Mediation Center of the Pacific (2004-2008)
Board of Directors, Hawai'i Justice Foundation (1999-2003) (President 2002-2003)
Member, Hawai'i Education Goals 2000 Panel.
Member, State Commission on Gender Equity in Sports (2000-2003).
Selection Committee, Pacific Century Fellows (2003-2007, 2010-2011).
Member, Governor's Committee on Crime (1997-2003).
Planning Committee, Statewide Five-Year Domestic Violence Strategic Plan (2005-2006).
Member, State Judicial Council (1996-2003).
Member, Supreme Court Committee on Equality and Access to the Courts (1996-2001).
Volunteer, Hospice Hawai'i (1995-2002).
Mediator, Neighborhood Justice Center of Honolulu (1990-1992).
Adjunct Professor, Hawai'i Pacific University (1990-1996).

Awards, Honors and Distinctions

St. Andrew's Schools 2019 Queen Emma Ball Co-Honoree
Recipient of the Justice Award by the Hawai'i State Bar Association for making an outstanding contribution to the ideals of justice.
Recipient of the Lawyer as Problem Solver Award from the Mediation Center of the Pacific for outstanding commitment to community problem solving.
Recipient of the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Domestic Violence Coalition for leadership and commitment to eliminating domestic violence in Hawai'i.
Recipient of the Outstanding Mental Health Leader Award from Mental Health America of Hawai'i for advocating for mental health initiatives and reform.
Recipient of the Social Work Advocate of the Year Award from the Hawaii Association of Social Workers for outstanding contribution and achievement in the field of social work.
Hawai'i State Senate Commendation for significant contributions to the justice system.
UCLA School of Law Order of the Coif (Top 10% of graduating class)
Recipient, UCLA School of Law, Florence Virginia K. Wilson Scholarship (1980-81) for outstanding academic achievement.
Recipient, UCLA School of Law, Arthur Greenburg Memorial Scholarship (1981-82) Student of outstanding ability.
Stanford University, Phi Beta Kappa, Honors and Distinction

Personal

Married to Maile Meyer, founder and owner of Native Books/Na Mea Hawai'i.
Three children, Drew (32), Emma (30) and Hannah (24).